Autumn Term Issue 5 21st October 2016

Dear Parents/Carers

It was great to see so many parents, grandparents, brothers and sisters at our Harvest Assembly this morning – we are delighted that you could all join us. I am very grateful to all the Long Crendon staff, to Mr Hamilton and to Mrs Walker from the Baptist Church, who gave up their time at short notice and helped us to organise and present the assembly. The children were great!

I hope that you all have an enjoyable half term break.

Very best wishes

Sue Stamp

FOREST SCHOOL

Debbie Berrell has asked me to extend great big thanks for all the donations of tyres, bricks and pallets for Forest School. We are still looking for more bricks, pallets, gardening tools and wooden garden trimmings, so please keep us in mind if you are working in the garden during half term.

DON'T FORGET - TODAY! CHARITY GARAGE SALE

Phoebe Thomas and Sophie Longwell in Year 2 are organising a Charity Garage Sale in aid of 'Get Kids Going'. It will be taking place on Friday 21st October from 3pm onwards outside Phoebe's house, 35 Bonnersfield. Please do pop along and grab some bargains if you can!

LOST PROPERTY

Despite all our appeals to name clothing at the start of term, we currently have the following un-named lost property on the table in the entrance hall:

- 1 skirt
- 1 shirt
- 2 polo shirts
- 1 jumper
- 5 cardigans

If this remains unclaimed at the beginning of November it will be recycled!

NUTS!

We have staff and children on site with severe nut allergies and for this reason ALL nuts and nut based products, are banned from the school site AT ALL TIMES, including during out of school hours. For the safety of all those who suffer from these allergies, please adhere to this policy.
