If you are shortlisted for interview we will ask you to complete a self-declaration of criminal record or other information that would make you unsuitable for work with children:

The purpose of this self-declaration is so that you have the opportunity to share relevant information and this can then be discussed and considered at interview, before a DBS certificate is received.

9. The lawful basis on which we use school workforce information

Our school, as a data controller, needs to comply with the UK's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the UK Data Protection Act 2018. We are required to ensure we have a lawful basis under the GDPR for any processing we carry out on personal data.

Under Article 6 of the GDPR the lawful bases we rely on for processing school workforce information are:

- We need to comply with a contractual obligation, e.g. paying salaries
- We need to comply with a legal obligation, e.g. DfE data returns
- We need to meet our public task of running our school and keeping everyone safe
- We have a legitimate interest
- We have obtained consent to use personal information in a certain way
- We need to protect someone's life (vital interests) in an emergency.

Our lawful bases under the GDPR for the purposes listed in the section above are as follows:

- Carry out the contract we have with you, provide you with access to the services required for your role and manage our human resources processes - contractual obligation
- Assess your performance, to conduct pay and grading reviews and to deal with any employer/employee related disputes. We also use it to meet the training and development needs required for your role - legal obligation, public task
- Assess your compliance with school policies and procedures and to ensure the security of our premises, IT systems and employees - public task
- Comply with our legal obligations (such as the submission of the annual school workforce census) and for equal opportunities monitoring. We also use it to ensure the health, safety and wellbeing of our employees - legal obligation, public task
- Develop a comprehensive picture of our workforce and how it is deployed - public task
- Inform the development of recruitment and retention policies and procedures, as well as our safer recruitment practice - public task

Some personal information requires extra protection because it is considered more sensitive. This includes race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, medical conditions, genetic information and biometric data.

Under Article 9 of the GDPR, if we are processing special category data, we will also rely on one of the following lawful conditions:

- To meet our obligations as a data controller, or those of data subjects, in connection with employment, social security and social protection
- For reasons of substantial public interest, keeping our workforce safe and ensuring equality of opportunity/treatment
- To establish, exercise or defend legal claims
- To protect someone's life (vital interests) in an emergency
- We have explicit consent.

In addition, under the UK's Data Protection Act 2018, we rely on the processing conditions at Schedule 1 part 1, paragraphs 1, 8 and 18.

These relate to the processing of special category data for employment purposes, safeguarding and equality of opportunity/treatment. Our Appropriate Policy Document provides more information about this processing.

10. The lawful basis of consent

Whenever we rely on consent, it must be freely given, informed and clear. Consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting the school lead (details on the first page).

11. Criminal convictions and offences

We process information about staff criminal convictions and offences under Article 10 of the GDPR because we are required by law to carry out enhanced DBS checks as part of our recruitment processes.

The GDPR Article 6 lawful bases we rely to process this data are:

- Performance of our public task
- Performance of a contract.

In addition, under the UK's Data Protection Act 2018, we rely on the processing conditions at Schedule 1:

- Part 2, para 6(2)(a)
- Part 1, para 1.

These relate to the processing of criminal offence data for statutory and employment purposes respectively. See Part 3 of Keeping Children Safe in Education for more information.

Our Appropriate Policy Document provides more information about this processing.

12. Your Data Protection Rights

Under the GDPR you have the right to request access to the information about you that we process (a subject access request). To make a request for your information please contact the school lead (details on the first page).

You also have the right to:

- Have your personal data corrected if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- Request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- Restrict the processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing)
- Object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics
- Not to be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect upon you.

For more information on how we handle subject access requests, please see our Data Protection Policy.

13. How you can help us

As we have limited staff resources outside of term time, we encourage members of our school workforce to submit subject access requests during term time and not too close to the end of term. This will support us in responding as quickly as possible to your request, which we always want to do.

14. Any concerns

We take any concerns about our collection or use of personal information very seriously, so please contact us (details on first page) to raise any concerns in the first instance.

Alternatively, you also have the right to raise your concerns with the Information Commissioner's Office and you can find more information about how to do this here.
